

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Pentecost Sunday

Next Sunday is Pentecost Sunday, so please wear red as an outward sign of the inward transformation by the Holy Spirit in each of our hearts. As “tongues of fire” came to rest on the disciples on that first Pentecost long ago, we gather together and then leave still blazing with the fire of hope God offers all through God’s Spirit. The red is a sign that the good news of Jesus came to all who were there in a language they could understand from people with whom they would not otherwise have communicated. We will also be taking our Pentecost Offering. When you give to the Pentecost Offering, you are helping to provide opportunities for young people to grow and share in their faith in Christ. Forty percent stays with our congregation, twenty-five percent supports Young Adult Volunteers, twenty-five percent supports Ministries with Youth, especially the Triennium and ten percent is devoted to children at risk.
